

January 30 - January 31, 2006
Denver, Colorado

PLANNED BVD CONTROL IN BEEF HERDS

PRODUCTION LEVEL - APPLIED SCIENCE SESSION

2006 BVD Symposium - January 31, 2006

Location: Adam's Mark Hotel, Denver, CO

Moderator: Dr. Bob Smith (Chairman, NCBA Cattle Health and Well-being Committee)

1:00-1:30	Why Control BVD: Economic and production costs, tools to accomplish. -Dr. Bob Larson
1:30-2:00	BVD Virus-What do we need to know, tests and test interpretations -Dr. Dan Grooms
2:00-2:30	BVD Control Plans-Components, setting and achieving goals -Dr. Dave Smith
2:30-3:00	Results of European BVD Control Efforts -Dr. Paul Valle
3:00-3:15	Break
3:15-3:30	Potential and Benefits for Statewide BVD Control Programs -Dr. Jim Kennedy
3:30-4:45	Current BVD Control in Beef Operations Seedstock -Mark Gardiner/Dr. Randall Spare Commercial cow/calf -Jack Turnell -Dr. Dan Goehl -Dr. Phillip Kesterson Feedlot and backgrounding -Lucy Rechel Biosecurity and Merchandising Aspects -Patsy Houghton
4:45-5:15	Panel Discussion (Facilitator: Clint Peck) and Wrap Up